More detailed :

The APICS CPIM Program

The APICS Certified in Production and Inventory Management (CPIM) program is recognized worldwide as the standard in production and inventory control. An APICS certification shows a commitment to the profession that leads to a sense of accomplishment, demonstrates value to an employer, enhances earning potential and provides a path to career advancement. The APICS CPIM program is divided into five process-oriented topics to provide participants with the best possible educational assessment and knowledge base. More than 100,000 professionals have earned the APICS CPIM designation, and nearly 3,000 have advanced to the APICS Certified Fellow in Production and Inventory Management (CFPIM) designation. After earning an APICS CPIM designation, you can begin the process of earning the CFPIM designation. The distinguishing characteristic of the APICS CFPIM designation is the willingness to share acquired knowledge with others through presenting, publishing, teaching and participating in professional development activities.

Creating a web login/logging in to the APICS website

- If candidates have an APICS ID and email address in their records, but have not created a web profile, they can visit apics.org/forgotUID, enter their APICS ID as the user name and follow the instructions.
- Candidates without an APICS ID can obtain one by creating a web profile at apics.org/newuser.
- If candidates have an APICS ID but do not have an email address, or are not sure if they have an email address in their records, they need to contact APICS Customer Service to have a web profile created for them. Customer service can be contacted at service@apics.org 1-800-444-2742 or +1-773-867-1777 from 8 :00 a.m.–5 :00 p.m. CT.

Preparing for the exam

APICS offers a variety of resources to build candidates' knowledge of the APICS CPIM subject matter and support APICS CPIM exam preparation :

- The APICS CPIM Exam Content Manual, which provides an overview of the curriculum with test specifications, key terminology and questions with answers
- APICS Dictionary, 14th edition
- APICS CPIM preparation courses, offered worldwide; candidates can visit apics.org/finder to find a course near their location
- APICS CPIM Study Tools

How to earn and keep the designation

- Candidates must pass all five APICS CPIM exams within 10 years to earn the APICS CPIM designation.
- Candidates are required to maintain the designation every five years. More information about maintenance may be found at apics.org/maintenance.

Track progress toward the APICS CPIM designation

- Candidates can track their progress toward earning the APICS CPIM designation, share their certified status once the designation is earned, and monitor their maintenance deadline by accessing their My APICS account.
- Note : Candidates must log in the APICS website to access My APICS Certifications.

APICS CFPIM qualifications

Individuals looking to obtain the APICS Certified in Production and Inventory Management (CPIM) designation must complete and submit an application. Points are awarded based on the following criteria :

- APICS CPIM exams
- Presentations
- Published works
- Classroom teaching
- Volunteering
- Practitioner activities

Candidates may obtain an APICS CFPIM application and detailed instructions by visiting apics.org/cfpim or contacting APICS Customer Service at 1-800-444-2742 or +1-773-867-1777.

APICS Code of Ethics

- Maintain exemplary standards of professional conduct;
- Not misrepresent your qualifications, experience, or education to APICS or others you serve in a professional capacity;
- Respect and not violate the United States Copyright of all APICS materials, including but not limited to courseware, magazine articles and other APICS publications, APICS conference presentations, and CPIM and CSCP examination resources. In this same spirit, you must not violate the copyright of other organizations and individuals in your professional capacity;
- Not engage in or sanction any exploitation of one's membership, company, or profession;
- Encourage and cooperate in the interchange of knowledge and techniques for the mutual benefit of the profession;
- In your professional capacity, respect the fundamental rights and dignity of all individuals. You must demonstrate sensitivity to cultural, individual, and role differences, including those due to age, gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, disability, language, and socio-economic status;
- In your professional capacity, not engage in behavior that is harassing or demeaning to others based on factors including, but not limited to, age, gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, disability, language, or socio-economic status;
- Adhere to this Code of Conduct and its application to your professional work. Lack of awareness or misunderstanding of an ethical standard is not itself a defense to a charge of unethical conduct;
- Contact the Ethics Committee when uncertain whether a particular situation or course of action violates the Code of Conduct; and
- Not to become the subject of public disrepute, contempt, or scandal that affects your image or goodwill.
- Failure to abide by the APICS Code of Ethics policy may result in sanctions up to and including decertification.

Exam scoring

- APICS uses a scaled score methodology, which is a technique for equating scores in which the degree of difficulty varies from one exam form to the next.
- This ensures equivalent passing standards are maintained for each exam form.
- Candidates can download “Understanding a Scaled Score” at apics.org/scaledscore for more information.

APICS CPIM score range

The APICS CPIM score range is 265 to 330.

- Fail = 265–299
- Pass = 300–330

Special test accommodations

- Pearson VUE will comply with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (42 U.S.C. Section 12101 et seq.) and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act as amended (42 U.S.C. 2000e et seq.) or local laws to accommodate candidates who, because of disability or religious reasons, need special arrangements to take an examination.
- If special test arrangements are needed, candidates should follow the instructions posted in the “Accommodations” section of pearsonvue.com/apics prior to requesting the Authorization to Test. These arrangements, if approved, will be provided at no additional cost. Candidates will be contacted by APICS to complete the Authorization to Test process.

Exam delivery

- Exams are delivered via computer-based testing (CBT) through the Pearson VUE network of test centers.
- Pearson VUE delivers millions of high-stakes tests a year across the globe for clients in the licensure, certification, academic admissions, regulatory and government testing service markets.
- Pearson Professional Centers utilize a patent-winning design, which was created specifically for high-stakes testing and offers a carefully controlled, consistent testing environment.

 - 2017
 - 4 March–6 May
 - 3 June–15 July
 - 12 August–30 September
 - 28 October–23 December

Candidates are required to request an Authorization to Test (ATT) from APICS in order to schedule an appointment with Pearson VUE. ATTs are valid for one exam window.

Requesting an Authorization to Test (ATT)

- All candidates will be required to log in to their My APICS account and complete the Authorization to Test Request Form.
- An ATT is required in order to schedule the exam with Pearson VUE and is valid for one exam window.
- A candidate must choose an exam window within their six month ATT eligibility period.
- All ATTs expire six months from date of purchase.
- A candidate purchasing an ATT outside of North America may only test at an exam center outside of North America.
- Candidates receive an ATT confirmation email from APICS with scheduling instructions and other exam-related information.
- An ATT is non-refundable and non-transferable.
- If the ATT expires without being used to schedule an exam, the candidate forfeits the exam fee.

Completing the Authorization to Test Request Form

- Candidates can access the ATT Request Form at apics.org/att.
- Candidates will be required to verify name and contact information. The first and last names on this form must match the first and last names on the IDs that are used to access the test center.
- Candidates will be prompted to select the exam module and the country in which they plan to take the exam.
- A link to a list of test center locations will be provided.
- Candidates will be required to confirm that at least one of those test centers is viable.

PROCEDURES FOR TAKING THE CPIM EXAMS

(OUTSIDE NORTH AMERICA)

- If a candidate purchases an ATT to test outside of North America, they can only schedule their exam at a test center outside of North America.
- Candidates will be required to agree to abide by the APICS Code of Ethics and confirm they have read and understood the exam policies, procedures, and privacy laws before they can receive an ATT.
- Any exam credit(s) used to purchase an ATT will be considered used and is non-refundable and nontransferable.
- It is the candidate's responsibility to review the information within the ATT form prior to submitting to ensure they have chosen the ATT for the correct exam. An ATT is non-refundable and non-transferable.
- After submitting the request, candidates will receive a confirmation email containing a summary of the information submitted in the request form.
- Candidates will receive the ATT email immediately. Candidates who do not receive their ATT email within one business day, should contact exams@apics.org or info@picsbelgium.be.
- It is the candidate's responsibility to review the information within the ATT email to ensure there are no errors.
- If there are any errors or if no ATT is received, the candidate must contact APICS directly.

Changing Exam Windows

- If the ATT has not yet been used to schedule an exam and it has not yet expired, candidates can make modifications directly in their My APICS account by accessing the online Authorization to Test Request Form.
- Once logged in, candidates will have the option to edit their current ATT.
- If a candidate chooses a new window that occurs within six months of the original date the ATT was issued, no additional fees will be assessed.
- If a candidate wishes to change their exam window to a testing window that starts after their authorization expiration date, they must purchase a new ATT. The full exam fees apply. No refunds will be issued to candidates who do not test within the original authorization period.

Scheduling the exam

- Once candidates receive the ATT email from APICS, they will be immediately redirected to the Pearson VUE scheduling system. Candidates will no longer be required to generate an independent account with Pearson VUE. Candidates are strongly encouraged to schedule their examinations immediately after purchasing their ATT in order to ensure seat availability.
- Candidates will only be able to select an exam date that falls within the 6 month ATT validity period.
- Upon scheduling the exam(s), candidates will receive a confirmation notice from Pearson VUE via email. It is the candidate's responsibility to review the information within the confirmation notice to ensure they are registered for the correct test, at the correct site and on the correct date. If there are any errors or if no confirmation notice is received, the candidate must contact Pearson VUE directly.
- Candidates who wish to schedule their exam at a later date may do so by logging in to their My APICS account, navigating to the Exam Authorizations and Credits under the Certifications tab. Candidates can use this section to schedule or change their testing appointments.

Rescheduling an exam

- Candidates who need to reschedule their exam appointment within their chosen window can make modifications directly in their My APICS account by accessing the online Authorization to Test Request Form.
- Once logged in, candidates will have the option to reschedule their current ATT. Candidates must pay a USD $45 rescheduling fee. Reschedule requests received less than 24 hours before the scheduled exam appointment will not be accepted, and if the candidate does not test, the candidate forfeits the exam fees.
- If candidates need to reschedule their exam appointment to a different window, they should follow the cancellation policy below.

Canceling an exam

- Candidates who no longer can test within their originally selected window must cancel the exam directly in their My APICS account by accessing the online Authorization to Test Request Form.
- Once logged in, candidates will have the option to cancel their current ATT.
- Candidates must pay the USD $45 cancellation fee.
- Candidates will receive a confirmation email from Pearson VUE.
- Once the cancellation has been processed, candidates should allow one business day for the cancellation information to be updated in the APICS system, then access the ATT form at www.apics.org/att select the View/Update an existing Authorization to Test option to choose a new exam window.
- If a candidate chooses :
 - a new window that starts within 6 months of the original date the ATT was issued, no additional fees will be assessed.
- If a candidate selects :
 - a new window that starts after 6 months from the original ATT issue date, they must pay a new exam fee. No refunds or transfers will be issued.

Name changes

- If a name change is required after the ATT is received, candidates must contact APICS at exams@apics.org at least two business days prior to their scheduled exam.
- Candidates must submit a copy of the primary identification they are planning to use to support this change.

On the day of the exam

Reporting to the test center

- Candidates must check in at the test center no later than 30 minutes before their scheduled appointment.
- Candidates who arrive past this time may be refused admission to the test center and may lose their exam appointment.
- Furthermore, they may be considered a no-show and may forfeit the full exam fee.

What to bring

- Candidates must bring a valid (bearing a future expiration date) primary identification that includes a recent photograph and signature :
 - driver's license (except in China)
 - passport
 - military ID
 - state ID
 - company ID (except in China)
- They also must bring a valid secondary identification that includes their signature :
 - credit card
 - check cashing card
 - citizenship card
 - APICS membership card
 - another ID from the primary list
- The test center staff verifies only the first and last name on the IDs provided to ensure they match the first and last name on the exam registration. No temporarily issued identification is accepted.
- Candidates who do not bring these items on exam day or whose name on the registration does not match their IDs will be denied admission to the examination. They will be considered a no-show and will forfeit the full exam fee.
- Candidates who do not have a primary ID that meets the above requirements due to local standards should contact exams@apics.org for assistance.
- An online computer calculator is available during each computer-based exam, but bringing a simple nonprogrammable calculator into the exam room is also permitted.
- English-native language translation books are the only written materials candidates may bring into the exam room. These books should contain only the literal translation of English words, and should not include a description of the meaning of the word. The test center manager will inspect these books before candidates are admitted to the testing room.

 - arrive late for their exam
 - fail to bring two forms of acceptable identification to the exam

Score report

- At the end of the exam, candidates will receive a printed score report that includes the candidate's name, exam title, score, and passed or failed information. If no score report is received prior to leaving the testing center, the candidate should contact Pearson VUE directly.

Test center closures

- If the test center closes, Pearson VUE will contact the candidate to reschedule the exam at no additional charge.
- Candidates can also contact Pearson VUE directly to inquire about test center closures.

After exam day

APICS CPIM certificates

- Candidates who earn the Basics of Supply Chain Management (BSCM) certificate by obtaining a passing score on the exam (300 or higher), and candidates who have passed all five CPIM exams and have earned a CPIM designation, are eligible to obtain a certificate.
- Notification will be sent via email to qualified candidates upon completion of the exam with detailed instructions on how to obtain.
- Candidates can choose from two delivery options :
 - An electronic certificate can be downloaded and printed locally by accessing their My APICS account, at no charge.
 - A printed certificate can be requested via a link located on My APICS Certification page.
- The first requested certificate is complimentary (shipping fees may apply) depending on candidate selection.

Retaking the exams

- Candidates who fail an APICS CPIM exam must wait 14 full days before retaking the same exam. There are no exceptions to this policy.

Candidate feedback

- Shortly after the exam date, candidates will be sent a survey to obtain feedback on their overall testing experience. This survey can also be accessed at any time through a link on the “My APICS Certifications”

Credential verification

- This online service located on the Credential Verification page will provide the public, prospective employers and other stakeholders with a way to verify an individual’s certification status.
- Candidates may also view and print their own credential verification by accessing their My APICS account. APICS credential verification is designed to :
 - Elevate the credibility of APICS certification in the marketplace
 - Comply with industry best practice standards for publicizing certification credentials.
 - Protect the value of the credential for all our designees.

Appeals policy

- Candidates who would like to dispute an APICS Certification action, decision, or determination may contact APICS at certification@apics.org for additional information.

APICS Privacy Policy

In applying for APICS Certification Programs, you consent to APICS disclosure of Certification Information to third parties. Moreover, in applying for APICS Certification Programs you acknowledge and waive any and all rights to opt out of our collection and distribution of your Certification information, and you further agree that APICS has no liability for providing this information.
